INTRODUCTION

Our Lady of Guadalupe, also known as the Virgin of Guadalupe, is a beloved Marian title that holds deep significance, especially in Mexico and throughout the Americas. Her story dates back to December 1531, when the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to Saint Juan Diego, a humble indigenous man, on Tepeyac Hill near present-day Mexico City.

Mary introduced herself as the Mother of God and asked Juan Diego to petition the bishop for the construction of a chapel on the site. Initially, the bishop hesitated and requested a sign. In response, Mary instructed Juan Diego to gather roses miraculously blooming in the winter. When he presented these roses to the bishop, her image was imprinted on his tilma (cloak), a miraculous artifact that remains intact to this day.

The tilma, bearing the iconic image of Our Lady of Guadalupe, depicts Mary as a mestiza woman, symbolizing unity between the indigenous and Spanish cultures. Her appearance marked the beginning of mass conversions to Christianity in the region, as her message resonated with the oppressed and marginalized.

Our Lady of Guadalupe is recognized as the Patroness of the Americas and the Unborn. Her feast day, celebrated on December 12, is marked by vibrant festivities, Masses, and processions. Devotion to her emphasizes love, compassion, and her role as a mother who intercedes for her children.

Her message remains timeless: one of hope, unity, and the reminder of God's tender care for all humanity.

OPENING PRAYER

Remember, O most gracious Virgin of Guadalupe, that in your heavenly apparitions on the mount of Tepeyac, you promised to show your compassion and pity towards all who, loving and trusting you, seek your help and call upon you in their necessities and afflictions. You promised to hear our supplications, to dry our tears, and to give us consolation and relief.

Never has it been known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession, was left unaided. # ABOUT HOLY ROSARY TODAY

3. Tell others about us. It is becoming increasingly difficult to be discovered on YouTube and other social media platforms.
4. Invest in our mission. Though we do not ask for monetary gifts, any received are used for our expenses.
